

Joseph Farmer is the manifestation of an enigma; a life within a life; a man living vicariously within a man, broken by the brutal nature of a brief glimpse of the face of death. I am a guitar player, a song writer, a lyricist; all of which have been vital to survival within my "new normal". This book will be the first major objective that I have completed since the death of my wife; for me, an enormous stepping stone and a hand hold to sanity. Although these pages have made me cry, they have become my drug of preference, mediating necessary healing from a barbaric collision with the unpredictable ebb of life.
