

Excerpt from An of the Town and Castle of Warwick and of the Neighbouring Spa of Leamington: To Which Are Added, Short Notices of the Towns, Villages, &C; Within the Circuit of Ten Miles Though the principal object of the following Work, as expressed in the Title Page, is the information of Strangers, especially those resorting to the celebrated Spa of Leamington: yet the Writer had another object in view - to which, he acknowledges, his hopes and his wishes were, with equal or greater ardour directed. During his residence in Warwick, or its immediate vicinity, he has often had occasion to witness the regret, which, he believes, has long been felt, that no work of the nature of the present has yet appeared, of easy access, and comprising, within a moderate compass, the information, that might be collected concerning a town of such remote antiquity, and so much early and present celebrity.
