And if you don't care about the latter, take the advice the book offers in its first paragraph and Read it anyway. There's other stuff in it, too. -Allen Barra, The Palm Beach Post

An excerpt Okay, here's the deal. This is a book about a baseball player. Do you care? If you don't care, read it anyway. There's some other stuff in it, too. Chance Caine. Recognize the name? The fish turned a final somersault, stood on its tail on the rail, and shrieked in trembling rage, Vengeance is mine, haa ha haaa ha! ! Then he dove under the waves and was gone. The End What the???

I graded it A and from then on leaned back a little in my chair when he walked by. I leaned back further after I had read his science fiction slash fantasy effort a few weeks later. You'll see that one, too, in time. Who is this guy? Let's see if I can answer that question. So what
