

Compiled for the benefit of sufferers from any form of ill-health or lack of wellbeing, Plant Power, Word Power joins together two great healing agents: plants, the gift of Nature, and words, the gift of Mind. Every plant on the planet, including poisonous plants, contains some property or chemical of value to some creature, quite apart from the vitamins, minerals and nutrition we receive from our daily intake of vegetables, fruits and juices. This has been known since time immemorial. Likewise, clear directions on the use of words and sounds for healing, for achieving or effecting change, even to perform miracles can be found 8,000--2,000 years ago in the words of Confucius, Plato, Aristotle, Socrates, Plotinus and Marcus Aurelius as well as throughout the Bible. These suggestions, hints and instructions have been referred to in almost every modern language from English, German and Spanish to Japanese and Hebrew. Physical ailments, diseases and conditions are effects, for which the causes lie in mental attitudes and emotional states. It is now well-established that plants can give relief or healing to emotions, and by healing one's emotions one can heal the physical body. Conversely, a healing of the physical body is usually accompanied or followed by a great improvement in the mental and emotional outlook. Plant Power, Word Power will assist sufferers from physical, emotional or mental health problems to change negative attitudes into constructive attitudes, no matter how deep-rooted they may be; and through that change to avert or heal the physical consequences. The rhyming Affirmations and the Bach Flower Remedies which they accompany are formidable tools for the achievement of this objective. Affirmations "rhyming affirmations at that" support the remedies, and can work effectively quite independently of the remedies. The affirmations are in verse form in order to more quickly penetrate your subconscious, which is where attitude change takes place. Rhymes and metre are effective meditation and memory aids. The affirmation at the end of each section does not mention by name the remedy to which it applies. This renders the affirmation self-existent and independent, thus it can be applied solely to physical ailments or conditions. You may use the Remedies without the Affirmations, or the Affirmations without the Remedies. Together, though, they can give you all the understanding and power you need to change your life for the better. Plant Power, Word Power is easy to read, well-illustrated and highly informative. The 42 Affirmations are particularly useful as they can be applied not only to the healing of illnesses and adverse mental states, but also to a wide variety of mental, emotional, financial, physical and creative blocks. The author of Plant Power, Word Power, Avner Kornblum, has been a psychotherapist, counsellor and practitioner in the field of non-medical healing for 44 years. He has practised his Holistic Healing therapy in England, Spain and South Africa, a therapy that has met with remarkable success, particularly for patients suffering from life-threatening physical illnesses. He added the Bach Flower Remedies in 1990.
