

My book is a collection of events that I experienced as I walked along the Camino trails. First of all, its about the relationships that were developed along the trail and many of the personal experiences that people shared with me as we were strolling along together on the Camino. Secondly, Ive included some of the legends and stories that have grown up around the different villages and areas over the many years of pilgrimage. Finally, Ive written down some of my musings that came to mind in moments of solitary meditation after an encounter with some interesting fellow pilgrim or it may have been when I was just communing with Mother Nature, decked out in her finest array. As an extra, in the book, I have included our little adventures that my wife, Lyla, and I may have taken before we started hiking or at the end of each hiking journey.
