

Excerpt from The Book of the Links: A Symposium on Golf The writers who have collaborated with me, and whose names appear at the head of their articles, are universally recognised to be leading authorities on the subjects with which they deal; and if this work in any way fulfils the purpose already referred to, I shall be more than recompensed for the time and labour expended on its production. I may add that, with a view to facilitate reference to any subject of special interest to the reader, a complete index will be found at the end of the book.
